Playlist #3

Playlist adalah sebuah format presentasi yang dikembangkan oleh Stockroom 56 yang dikelola oleh Ruang MES 56 untuk mengaktifkan kembali koleksi karya seni melalui pendekatan yang inklusif. Seperti menyusun sebuah daftar putar musik, Playlist memungkinkan siapa saja untuk memilih dan merangkai karya berdasarkan preferensi, pengalaman, atau sudut pandang pribadi. Dalam edisi ketiganya, Playlist #3 menghadirkan daftar pilihan kolaborasi Ahmad Husain Alfarizi, Angki Purbandono, dan Wimo Ambala Bayang.

Konsep playlist dipilih sebagai cara untuk menghadirkan kembali koleksi karya seni di Stockroom 56 melalui aktivasi pameran dan membuka interpretasi baru. Setiap orang dengan berbagai latar profesi seperti seniman, karyawan swasta, peneliti, antropolog, kritikus, hingga publik umum memiliki kesempatan yang sama untuk menjadi selector playlist. Seperti sebuah daftar putar yang tak pernah sama, tiap edisi Playlist akan menjadi pemantul pikiran kolektif kita: kadang menggema, kadang menenangkan, dan tak jarang menghentak hal-hal yang terlewatkan.

Playlist #3 menghadirkan karya-karya dari para seniman, di antaranya: Akiq AW, Alam Alfa, Anang Saptoto, Angki Purbandono, Arief Budiman, Edwin Roseno, Farhan Yodha Prawira, M. Alfariz, Rangga Purbaya, Wimo Ambala Bayang, Wok The Rock, dan Yudha Kusuma Putera. Tidak hanya menjadi presentasi dan distribusi karya seni, tetapi juga sebuah laboratorium untuk belajar membaca kecenderungan pasar, dinamika koleksi, serta bentuk-bentuk hubungan baru antara seni dan publik.

Berbeda dari biasanya, dalam pameran ini MES 56 tidak hanya menghadirkan program Playlist #3, tetapi juga berbagi ruang bersama seniman rekanan yang pernah terlibat dalam program kolektif, di antaranya Reza Kutjh (Legal Artist Series), Kasan Kurdi (Postscript/Notabene), dan Takashi Kuribayashi (Solo Exhibition)

Playlist is a presentation format developed by Stockroom 56, managed by Ruang MES 56, to reactivate its art collection through an inclusive approach. Much like curating a music playlist, Playlist allows anyone to select and arrange artworks based on personal preferences, experiences, or perspectives. In its third edition, Playlist #3 features a curated selection in collaboration with Ahmad Husain Alfarizi, Angki Purbandono, and Wimo Ambala Bayang.

The playlist concept was chosen as a way to reintroduce Stockroom 56's art collection through exhibition activations and to open up new interpretations. People from diverse professional backgrounds—such as artists, private employees, researchers, anthropologists, critics, and the general public—are equally invited to become playlist selectors. Like a playlist that is never the same, each edition of Playlist serves as a reflection of our collective thoughts: at times resonant, sometimes soothing, and occasionally striking in what has been overlooked.

Playlist #3 presents works by artists including Akiq AW, Alam Alfa, Anang Saptoto, Angki Purbandono, Arief Budiman, Edwin Roseno, Farhan Yodha Prawira, M. Alfariz, Rangga Purbaya, Wimo Ambala Bayang, Wok The Rock, and Yudha Kusuma Putera. It is not only a space for the presentation and distribution of artworks, but also a laboratory for exploring market tendencies, collection dynamics, and new forms of relationships between art and the public.

Unlike previous editions, in this exhibition MES 56 not only presents Playlist #3 but also shares the space with affiliated artists who have previously participated in collective programs, including Reza Kutjh (Legal Artist Series), Kasan Kurdi (Postscript/Notabene), and Takashi Kuribayashi (Solo Exhibition).

Legal Artist Series

Legal Artist Series merupakan program inisiatif MES 56 yang ditujukan untuk menemukan bakat baru dalam seni rupa kontemporer, khususnya di bidang fotografi dan video. Program ini memberi ruang eksperimentasi penuh kepada seniman terpilih untuk menyusun pameran tunggalnya di Ruang MES 56.

Di tahun 2025, Reza Kutjh dipilih karena kemampuannya menyampaikan gagasan dan gestur artistik alternatif dengan isu perampasan ruang. Pamerannya berjudul “Around the Wall That Stood Between Us” mengangkat konsep ngindung—praktik menempati tanah pinjaman di kawasan Magersari, Yogyakarta. Reza merespons dinamika hunian yang rapuh di tengah tekanan modernisasi dan komodifikasi ruang. Melalui pendekatan fotografi dan video, ia tidak hanya menyuarakan kegelisahan personal, tetapi juga menempatkan pengalaman tinggal sebagai bentuk perlawanan yang halus terhadap penghapusan ruang dan ingatan kolektif.

Legal Artist Series tidak hanya mengenalkan seniman baru, tetapi juga menegaskan posisi Ruang MES 56 sebagai ruang eksplorasi isu sosial melalui pendekatan artistik fotografi. Apa yang dilakukan Reza Kutjh dalam Legal Artist Series 2025, membuka ruang tafsir bagi publik untuk meninjau kembali bagaimana kita hidup, berpindah, dan menetap di ruang yang tak pernah sepenuhnya kita miliki

Legal Artist Series is an initiative program by MES 56 aimed at discovering emerging talents in contemporary art, particularly in the fields of photography and video. The program provides selected artists with full experimental freedom to develop and present their solo exhibitions at Ruang MES 56.

In 2025, Reza Kutjh was selected for his ability to convey ideas and alternative artistic gestures around the issue of spatial dispossession. His exhibition, titled “Around the Wall That Stood Between Us,” explores the concept of ngindung—a practice of occupying borrowed land in the Magersari area of Yogyakarta. Reza responds to the fragile nature of such dwellings under the pressure of modernization and commodification of space. Through photography and video, he not only voices personal anxieties but also frames the experience of inhabiting space as a subtle form of resistance against the erasure of place and collective memory.

The Legal Artist Series is not only a platform to introduce new artists but also reaffirms the role of Ruang MES 56 as a space for exploring social issues through artistic approaches in photography. What Reza Kutjh presents in the 2025 edition opens up interpretive space for the public to reconsider how we live, move, and settle in spaces that are never entirely our own.

Postscript/Notabene

Postscript/Notabene, sebuah program pameran eksperimental yang dirancang MES 56 untuk menghadirkan dialog terbuka antara seniman dan budaya kritik. Karya utama diposisikan sebagai postscript—sebuah catatan pasca proses, sementara tanggapan dan kritik yang dihadirkan di area teras pameran, disebut notabene. Praktik ini membuka kemungkinan bagi pertarungan ide dan refleksi yang jujur dalam proses artistik.

Pada bulan Mei 2025, Postscript/Notabene hadir dengan menggandeng jurnalis dan fotografer Kasan Kurdi. Pameran bertajuk “Manufactured Truth” menghadirkan karya yang memprovokasi batas antara realitas dan rekayasa, melalui pendekatan visual yang meniru gaya foto jurnalistik. Dengan memanfaatkan teknologi AI, Kasan menciptakan citra-citra yang tampak otentik, emosional, dan meyakinkan, namun justru menantang kredibilitas visual di era pasca-kebenaran. Alih-alih sekadar bereksperimen dengan medium, ia mengajak publik untuk meragukan, mengkritisi, dan mendiskusikan kembali relasi antara media, kebenaran, dan kepercayaan.

Partisipasi Kasan Kurdi dalam program ini memperluas pembacaan terhadap lanskap seni visual kontemporer: bagaimana gambar diproduksi, diterima, dan digugat kembali. Di tengah banjir informasi yang serba manipulatif, Postscript/Notabene menjadi forum penting untuk menakar ulang otoritas visual dan memperkuat budaya uji silang dalam dunia seni.

Postscript/Notabene is an experimental exhibition program initiated by MES 56 to create an open dialogue between artists and the culture of critique. The main artwork is positioned as a postscript—a note made after the process—while responses and critiques presented in the exhibition's terrace area are referred to as notabene. This practice opens space for the clash of ideas and honest reflection within the artistic process.

In May 2025, Postscript/Notabene features journalist and photographer Kasan Kurdi. The exhibition, titled “Manufactured Truth,” presents works that provoke the boundary between reality and fabrication through a visual approach that mimics photojournalism. By utilizing AI technology, Kasan creates images that appear authentic, emotional, and convincing, yet precisely challenge the credibility of visuals in the post-truth era. Rather than merely experimenting with the medium, he invites the public to doubt, critique, and re-examine the relationship between media, truth, and belief.

Kasan Kurdi’s participation in this program expands the discourse on the contemporary visual art landscape—how images are produced, perceived, and contested. Amid a flood of manipulative information, Postscript/Notabene becomes an essential forum for re-evaluating visual authority and reinforcing a culture of cross-examination in the art world.

Solo Exhibition

Sejak tahun 2000-an, Takashi Kuribayashi telah menjadi figur yang sangat dekat dengan MES 56—sebuah hubungan lintas budaya dan disiplin yang tumbuh organik melalui dialog pertemanan dalam lanskap kesenian. Praktik seni Takashi berakar dari eksplorasi ‘batas’ antara negara, ekologi, waktu, dan ingatan melalui instalasi, video, dan proyek bergerak. Fokusnya pada fenomena yang tak kasat mata atau terlupakan seperti zona pasca-Fukushima atau relasi manusia dengan tanah, mendorong pengalaman sensorik dan reflektif bagi penontonnya.

Bulan Juni ini, melalui program solo exhibition di Ruang MES 56, Takashi akan menampilkan karya utamanya, Yatai Trip Project, sebuah instalasi bergerak yang telah berlangsung sejak 2009 dan berkembang lintas Asia serta Eropa.

Since the early 2000s, Takashi Kuribayashi has been a figure closely connected to MES 56—a cross-cultural and interdisciplinary relationship that has grown organically through friendship and dialogue within the arts landscape. Takashi’s artistic practice is rooted in the exploration of “boundaries” between nations, ecology, time, and memory, expressed through installation, video, and mobile projects. His focus on the invisible or overlooked—such as post-Fukushima zones or human relationships with land—invites sensory and reflective experiences for his audience.

This June, through a solo exhibition program at Ruang MES 56, Takashi will present one of his major works, the Yatai Trip Project, a mobile installation that has been ongoing since 2009 and has evolved across Asia and Europe.

Alam Alfa

Alam Alfa (lahir 1999) adalah seorang desainer, pelukis, fotografer, dan seniman visual multidisiplin yang berbasis di Yogyakarta, Indonesia. Ia bekerja lintas media untuk mengeksplorasi hubungan antara pengalaman pribadi dan struktur sosial yang lebih besar. Selama setahun terakhir, ia tertarik pada keterkaitan antara praktik penyembuhan tradisional, sejarah penularan penyakit, perubahan lingkungan, dan kisah-kisah kerja paksa. Melalui riset berbasis material, ia merangkai narasi-narasi tersebut untuk menelaah relasi kompleks antara seksualitas, pascakolonialisme, wacana ilmiah, dan kekerasan berbasis identitas.

Sejak tahun 2020, Alam menjadi anggota Ruang MES 56, sebuah kolektif fotografi kontemporer di Yogyakarta. Ia telah terlibat dalam berbagai pameran dan festival seni bersama kolektif tersebut. Salah satu karya terbarunya, The Past Comes Into Your Dream Now, ditampilkan dalam Jogja Fotografis Festival: Frame 2023. Dalam proyek ini, ia menggunakan metode arsip spekulatif untuk menggali memori trauma generasi yang berkaitan dengan genosida 1965. Dengan menggabungkan foto-foto lokasi kuburan massal dan potret keluarga anonim yang ditemukan di pasar loak, ia berusaha menembus batas-batas ingatan kolektif dan kesunyian sejarah.

Alam Alfa (b. 1999) is a designer, painter, photographer, and multidisciplinary visual artist based in Yogyakarta, Indonesia. His practice spans various media to investigate the intersections between personal embodiment and larger systemic structures. Over the past year, he has been particularly interested in the connections between traditional healing practices, histories of disease transmission, environmental change, and stories of forced labor. Through material-based research, he threads these narratives together to examine the complex relationships between sexuality, postcolonialism, scientific discourse, and identity-based violence.

In 2020, Alam became a member of Ruang MES 56, a Yogyakarta-based contemporary photography collective, where he has participated in multiple exhibitions and festivals. Notably, at Jogja Fotografis Festival: Frame 2023, he presented The Past Comes Into Your Dream Now, a work that used speculative archival methods to explore the memory of generational trauma tied to the 1965 genocide. By combining photographs of mass grave sites with anonymous family portraits sourced from flea markets, he attempted to break through the boundaries of collective memory and historical silence.

Arief Budiman

Arief Budiman adalah seniman dan pembuat film yang berbasis di Yogyakarta. Ia kerap menggunakan gambar bergerak dan seni media dalam karya-karyanya. Dalam beberapa tahun terakhir, praktik artistik Arief sangat erat kaitannya dengan internet, arsip, dan ingatan kolektif yang berhubungan dengan sejarah kekerasan. Melalui instrumen-instrumen tersebut, Arief menciptakan sejarah alternatif terhadap narasi yang sudah mapan, serta membangun narasi tandingan melalui ingatan orang-orang yang selama ini absen atau dianggap tabu untuk dibicarakan.

Ia merupakan salah satu penerima SGIFF SEA-Shorts Grant pada tahun 2025. Pada tahun 2023, film dokumenternya menerima Sharjah Art Foundation - Short Film Grant dan meraih penghargaan sebagai Film Dokumenter Pendek Terbaik di Festival Film Indonesia. Sebelumnya, pada tahun 2021, ia juga memenangkan Julius Baer - Next Generation Art Prize di Singapura untuk kategori Gambar Bergerak. Saat ini, Arief merupakan anggota aktif dari dua kolektif seni dan film, yaitu MES 56 dan Piring Tirbing.

Karya-karya Arief telah dipamerkan secara internasional, dan ia telah mengikuti berbagai program residensi, di antaranya Miro Center Gwangju & Artspace House (2024), Koganecho AIR (2024), Art Center Ongoing AIR (2024), Norient Festival (2024), TRAFIK Cinema (2024), Glued & Screwed (2023), Sharjah Film Platform 6 (2023), Jogja-NETPAC Asian Film Festival (2023), Biennale Jogja XVI (2021), "Gerobak Cinema" di Dhaka Art Summit (2020), Arkipel – Jakarta International Documentary and Experimental Film Festival (2019), 36th Kassel Film and Video Documentary Festival (2019), Festival Film Dokumenter (2019), V Nodo Caracas Video Festival (2019), dan lain-lain.

Arief Budiman is an artist and filmmaker based in Yogyakarta. He often uses moving images and media art in his work. In recent years, Arief's artistic practice has been closely linked to the internet, archives, and collective memory related to the history of violence. He is one of the SGIFF SEA-Shorts Grant recipients in 2025. In 2023, his documentary film got the Sharjah Art Foundation - Short Film Grant and won the award for Best Short Documentary at the Indonesian Film Festival, and in 2021, he received the Julius Baer - Next Generation Art Prize in Singapore in the Moving Image category. His notable works include the Abandoned series, which addresses the experience of migrants who are unable to return to their hometowns, and Unpredictable Bloom – Ficus Life Note, a project that uses the anthotype technique (printing photos with plant pigments) to document the role of Ficus trees as guardians of water springs in Samigaluh, while also reflecting on fragility and presence.

Alfariz also explores dream narratives in Tamasya Di Ujung Malam (A Stroll at the Edge of Night), combining images with everyday objects and even using PUBG Mobile game screenshots to blur the boundaries between reality and the digital world—demonstrating a creative approach that is both interdisciplinary and conceptual.

Takashi Kuribayashi

Kuribayashi sering mengatakan, "Kebenaran berada di tempat-tempat yang tak terlihat. Begitu kamu menyadari bahwa ada dunia lain yang tersembunyi dari pandangan, kamu akan mulai menjalani hidup dengan cara yang berbeda." Dunia yang tak kasat mata—dan batas-batasnya—menjadi tema utama dalam praktik seni Kuribayashi sepanjang kariernya.

Ia menciptakan instalasi-instalasi unik yang memvisualisasikan hal-hal yang tidak tampak dalam kehidupan sehari-hari—di balik langit-langit, lantai, atau dasar laut—untuk mengungkap dunia terselubung tersebut.

Gempa Besar Jepang Timur pada 11 Maret 2011 menjadi batas yang sangat besar, memisahkan kehidupan dalam dua dimensi yang benar-benar berbeda. Sejak saat itu, Kuribayashi menghadapi isu-isu yang sangat sulit dan nyaris tak terlihat: kontaminasi radioaktif yang tidak kasat mata akibat tsunami dan bencana nuklir Fukushima, zona larangan di sekitar wilayah tersebut, serta aktivitas nuklir di bawah tanah—fenomena yang bahkan belum bisa kita pastikan apa yang sebenarnya terjadi.

Ia telah menjelajahi berbagai batas dunia—baik secara fisik maupun metafisik. Dalam proyek Yatai Trip-nya, ia merasakan bumi melalui pengalaman taktil—membuat peta Jepang dan dunia menggunakan berbagai material. Dalam perjalannya menelusuri batas antara kehidupan dan kematian, ruang dan waktu, Kuribayashi menemukan kembali kebijaksanaan leluhur dan berdialog dengan para pemikir serta orang bijak di era kita.

Inilah seni kehidupan versinya—sebuah praktik yang menantang cara kita hidup, dan dimaksudkan untuk diwariskan kepada generasi mendatang.

Kuribayashi often says, "The truth resides in places that are invisible. Once you become aware that there is another world hidden from sight, you begin to live differently." The invisible realm—and its boundaries—has been the central theme of Kuribayashi's artistic practice throughout his career.

He creates unique installations that visualize what is normally unseen in everyday life—behind ceilings, beneath floors, or under the sea—to reveal this hidden world.

The Great East Japan Earthquake on March 11, 2011, marked a profound boundary, separating life into two entirely different dimensions. Since then, Kuribayashi has confronted some of the most difficult and intangible issues: invisible radioactive contamination caused by the tsunami and the Fukushima nuclear disaster, the restricted zones around the region, and the subterranean activities of nuclear power—phenomena that remain beyond our ability to confirm or fully comprehend.

He has explored many of the world's physical and metaphysical boundaries. In his Yatai Trip project, he experiences the Earth through tactile means—mapping Japan and the world with various materials. In navigating the boundaries between life and death, time and space, Kuribayashi rediscovers ancestral wisdom and engages in dialogue with contemporary thinkers and visionaries.

This is his art of life—a practice that challenges how we live, and one that aims to be passed down for generations to come.

Wimo Ambala Bayang

Menempuh studi Fotografi di Institut Seni Indonesia Yogyakarta. Praktiknya mencakup berbagai medium, termasuk fotografi, video, objek, teks, dan pertunjukan video. Alih-alih menyampaikan kritik secara langsung, karya-karyanya mengajak penonton untuk meninjau ulang kebiasaan dan asumsi yang kerap dianggap "sudah ada sejak lama." Baik sejarah maupun fakta—besar maupun kecil—memegang peranan penting dalam proses kreatifnya.

Ia tertarik mengungkap sudut pandang unik yang kerap tersembunyi dalam kehidupan sehari-hari—mendorong audiens untuk mempertanyakan dan merefleksikan momen-momen kecil yang tampak biasa, namun membentuk dunia kita. Dengan memadukan realitas visual dan fantasi imajinatif, serta melalui eksperimen kamera yang penuh permainan, ia mengeksplorasi lapisan-lapisan budaya dan menawarkan cara baru untuk mencapai pemahaman bersama dalam masyarakat kontemporer yang beragam.

Pada tahun 2002, Wimo ikut mendirikan Ruang MES 56, sebuah kolektif seniman yang berfokus pada pengembangan fotografi dan seni kontemporer melalui pendekatan lintas disiplin, kritis, dan kontekstual. Selama satu dekade terakhir, ia telah mengikuti berbagai residensi dan program pertukaran internasional di Tiongkok, Australia, Belanda, Denmark, Rumania, dan Korea Selatan.

Wimo telah mengkurasi sejumlah proyek penting, di antaranya Indonesian Today untuk Tokyo Photography Month 2011; Pause Rewind Fast Forward #2 di Kiniko Art, Yogyakarta; We Go Where We Now di Galeri R.J. Katamsi, Institut Seni Indonesia Yogyakarta; Collaborate! A Year of Visual Encounters di Foam x Ruang MES 56, FOAM Museum, Amsterdam; serta Greetings from Indonesia di Jimei x Arles Photography Festival, Xiamen, Tiongkok.

Ia juga menjadi ko-programmer untuk Festival Film Dokumenter (FFD) pada tahun 2022 dan 2023. Pada tahun 2021, film dokumenternya The Enigma of HeDonism—yang mengangkat sosok Heri Dono, salah satu seniman kontemporer paling berpengaruh di Indonesia—memenangkan penghargaan sebagai Dokumenter Fitur Terbaik di Festival Film Dokumenter.

Studied Photography at the Indonesian Institute of the Arts in Yogyakarta. His practice spans various mediums, including photography, video, objects, text, and video performances. Rather than offering criticism, his art invites viewers to reconsider habits and assumptions that often feel as though they have "always existed." Both major and minor histories and facts play a central role in his creative process.

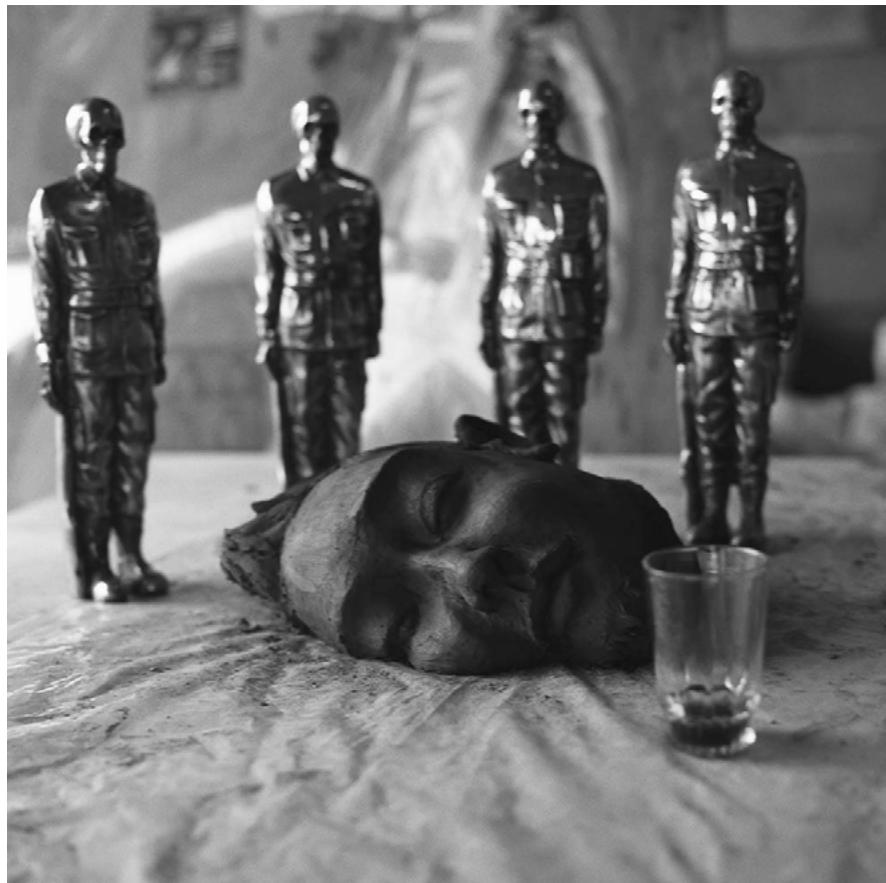

He is interested in uncovering unique, often hidden perspectives within everyday life—encouraging audiences to question and reflect on the small, seemingly ordinary moments that shape our world. By blending visual reality with imagined fantasy, and through playful experimentation with the camera, he explores cultural layers and offers new ways to reach shared understanding within our diverse contemporary society.

In 2002, Wimo co-founded Ruang MES 56, an artist collective focused on the development of photography and contemporary art through interdisciplinary, critical, and contextual approaches. Over the past decade, he has participated in international residencies and exchange programs in China, Australia, the Netherlands, Denmark, Romania, and South Korea.

Wimo has curated a number of significant projects, including Indonesian Today for Tokyo Photography Month 2011; Pause Rewind Fast Forward #2 at Kiniko Art, Yogyakarta; We Go Where We Now at R.J. Katamsi Gallery, Indonesian Institute of the Arts Yogyakarta; Collaborate! A Year of Visual Encounters at Foam x Ruang MES 56, FOAM Museum, Amsterdam; and Greetings from Indonesia at the Jimei x Arles Photography Festival, Xiamen, China.

He also served as a co-programmer for the 2022 and 2023 Documentary Film Festival (Festival Film Dokumenter). In 2021, his film The Enigma of HeDonism—a documentary about Heri Dono, one of Indonesia's most influential contemporary artists—won the award for Best Indonesian Feature Documentary.

Yudha Kusuma Putera

Yudha Kusuma Putera (Magelang, 1987), yang lebih dikenal dengan nama Fehung, adalah seniman visual yang tinggal dan bekerja di Yogyakarta. Sejak tahun 2011, ia mulai bekerja bersama kolektif seniman MES 56, yang berfokus pada pengembangan fotografi seni kontemporer di Indonesia. Fehung memiliki ketertarikan pada relasi antarmanusia dan hubungan yang dekat serta intim antara manusia dengan alam.

Medium fotografi digunakan sebagai cara berpikir dan melihat, yang membuka kemungkinan untuk menciptakan karya lintas medium dan lintas disiplin. Sejak pandemi tahun 2020, ketika kontak fisik menjadi hal yang tidak mungkin, Fehung mengarahkan karyanya ke ranah kerja berbasis studio. Praktik studio memungkinkan Fehung mengeksplorasi dunia materialitas dan kerja analog.

Praktik artistik Fehung saat ini mengembangkan metode estetika relasional yang sering ia praktikkan di masa lalu, serta pendekatan kerja studio yang ia tekuni dalam beberapa tahun terakhir.

Fehung meyakini bahwa kehidupan sehari-hari adalah sumber inspirasi utama dalam karyanya. Kehidupan sehari-hari yang kompleks tidak bisa begitu saja dilekatkan pada gaya atau bahasa seni tertentu, sehingga karya-karyanya terus berubah dan berkembang seiring waktu serta berpindahnya ruang hidup yang ia tempati.

Yudha Kusuma Putera (Magelang, 1987), commonly known as Fehung, is a visual artist who lives and works in Yogyakarta. In 2011, he began working together with the Mes 56 artist collective, which focuses on the development of contemporary art photography in Indonesia. Fehung is interested in interpersonal relationships and the close and intimate relationship between humans and nature.

The medium of photography is used as a way of thinking and seeing, giving rise to the possibility of cross-medium and cross-disciplinary works. Starting from the pandemic in 2020, and the impossibility of physical contact, Fehung directed his work towards studio-based works. Studio work allows Fehung to explore the world of materiality and analog work.

Fehung's artistic practice today elaborates the relational aesthetic methods that he often practiced in the past and the studio-based work that he has begun to pursue in recent years.

Fehung believes that everyday life is the main inspiration in his work. Complex everyday life cannot simply be embedded in a certain style or art language, making his work change and develop over time and as his living space moves.
